

Andrew Murdock Barn

We haven't a lot of information about this barn which belonged originally to Andy Murdock who lived on 3rd East and First North. The barn set on his property where Florence Nielson lives at 363 E. 100 North and was sold to Irwin Hicken and moved to 457 S. 500 E. in 1936. Ren Wooten rode the top of the barn while it was being moved by two caterpillars. The barn is of red wood and put together with wooden pegs instead of nails.

After the death of the Irwin Hickens, Wayne, his won purchased the property on 500 East, and is now the owner of the barn.

We haven't a lot of information about this barn which belonged originally to Andy Mordant who lived on 3rd East and 1st North. The barn sat on his property where Florence Nelson lives at 353 E. 100 North and was sold to him in 1937 and moved to 457 S.
500 E. in 1938. Ben Woollen rode the top of the barn while it was being moved by two caterpillars. The barn is of red wood and put together with wooden pegs instead of nails.
After the death of the first Hickson, Wayne, his son purchased the property on 700 East and is now the owner of the barn.